BUYING BEHAVIOUR

My audience actively invests in gaming setups, peripherals, and gaming accessories. They trust creator recommendations and respond well to discount codes and affiliate links.

CONTENT STYLE

Live gameplay, highlight clips, tech commentary. Authentic and unscripted — the audience values genuine reactions over polished ads. Integrations feel natural, not forced.

Partnership Opportunity — ThunderStorm Billy × [Brand Name]

OPENING

Hi [First Name],

My name is Billy — I'm a Twitch streamer and TikTok creator focused on gaming content under the brand ThunderStorm Billy. I've been a genuine fan of [Brand] — specifically [specific product/feature you actually use] — and I think there's a natural fit for a partnership.

THE NUMBERS

Quick snapshot of my audience: [X]K Twitch followers, [X]K TikTok followers, and around [X]K monthly views across platforms. My viewers skew 18–34, are heavily into PC gaming and peripherals, and actively purchase based on creator recommendations.

THE ASK

I'd love to explore what a partnership could look like — whether that's an affiliate arrangement to start or a sponsored stream integration. I've attached a short media kit with audience data and package options. Happy to jump on a quick call or go back and forth over email — whatever's easier for you.

CLOSE

Thanks for your time, [First Name]. Looking forward to hopefully working together.

— Billy

OUTREACH TIPS

01

Target the right person

Search LinkedIn for "Influencer Marketing Manager" or "Creator Partnerships" at the brand. Skip generic contact forms — they go nowhere.

02

Personalise every pitch

Mention a specific product you actually use. Brands can smell a copy-paste from a mile away. One sentence of genuine specificity goes a long way.

03

Start with affiliates

Most brands have self-serve portals. Join them, drive real sales, then use that data ("I drove 40 sales last month") as leverage for a paid deal.

04

Follow up once

If no reply after 1 week, send one follow-up. Short and friendly. After that, move on — don't burn the bridge by spamming.
